

Historic Hemet Theatre

PRESS RELEASE – April 16, 2017

Susan Carrier (951) 551-5363 susan@valleyhappenings.com

ROLLING STONES TRIBUTE NEXT UP AT HHT

On Saturday April 29th, fans of The Rolling Stones will be flocking to the Historic Hemet Theatre for a tribute to Mick Jagger and the iconic music of Mick and his band. Expectations are high that the event will be the 6th sell out performance in a row for the HHT, but tickets are still available.

"The Ultimate Stones" are without a doubt one of the greatest tribute bands in the country. They have mastered not just the sound -- but also the look and energy of the legendary "Stones" from London, England. They have performed all over the country and have been featured on AXS TV's "World's Greatest Tribute Bands."

Jim Becker performing as Mick has an uncanny ability to look and sound like Jagger. With an exciting stage presence and stellar vocal ability, Jim will make you believe that Mick Jagger has entered the building. The rest of The Ultimate Stones are guitarist Rick Harchol as Keith, drummer Rich Muhr as Charlie, and bass guitarist Bernie Yantz as Bill, Terry Myers as Ronnie, Bob Campbell as Bobby, Albert Margolis as Chuck and Julz Harris as Lisa-Mary.

Tickets for the 7:00 performance are $22 presale and $25 day of show. Concert tickets are available online at www.PurplePass.com or at the theatre ticket office. Tickets are also available at the Downtown Deli, 113 N Harvard St and the Harvard Street Music Exchange, 134 S Harvard St.

Information on all theatre events are available at www.HistoricHemetTheatre.com or by calling the ticket office, (951) 658-5950. A weekly email blast of upcoming events is available by enrolling on the website.