TRIBUTE TO BEACH BOYS RETURNS TO HHT

On Saturday August 26th, the classic sound of the Beach Boys returns once more to the Historic Hemet Theatre. "Surf's Up" is Southern California's favorite tribute to the Beach Boys and a regular visitor to the valley, performing in several venues in the area. And this will be the fourth time that the group has performed at HHT.

"Surf's Up" has an incredible sound -- you can close your eyes and match each note to the memory in the back of your mind, listening to those old vinyl records you played over and over again until the grooves were worn down.

The band consists of brothers Donny & Danny Goldberg, their father Don Goldberg Sr. and their cousin Denny Hardwick. They have been perfecting the Beach Boys sound for 25 years... literally since they were kids. Their harmonies capture the authentic blend of the Beach Boys, bringing the magical "Sound of Summer" to their performance.

If you have not visited the Historic Hemet Theatre for a concert, you are missing the chance to experience the best concert venue in the area. Audiences and performers alike comment that the acoustics in the auditorium are amazing. Add in comfortable seating, a large dance floor and a beer or glass of wine from the bar and you have the makings for the perfect concert night out. No need to drive to Temecula for a concert -- the best venue around is right here in the historic downtown district of Hemet!

Tickets sold out the last time Surf's Up was in town, so get your tickets early! There may be a few tickets left day of show -- call the box office to verify.

Showtime for all performances is 7:00 pm. Tickets are $22 presale, $25 day of show, available online at www.PurplePass.com or at the theatre ticket office. Tickets are also available at the Downtown Deli, 113 N Harvard St and the Harvard Street Music Exchange, 134 S Harvard St.
