TRIBUTE TO FOREIGNER COMES TO HHT (FINALLY)

Last November, an astounding Tribute to Foreigner, "Double Vision," was scheduled to perform at the Historic Hemet Theatre. Shortly before the date, a member of the band had urgent family issues and the concert was canceled. Later, the band broke up and canceled the rest of their tour.

Now the band has reformed with three of its original members and is hitting the road, taking the nation by storm. Renamed "4NR," the group has an incredible sound so close to the original, you will think you are listening to a classic Foreigner vinyl. But "4NR" is all live, no background tracks - just amazing musicians and their instruments.

And now that band is headed here (finally) to the Historic Hemet Theatre on Saturday October 7th at 7:00 pm. Tickets are already selling fast and this show may be the first sellout performance since the snowbirds left town in the spring. Don't miss this opportunity to see one of the best bands in the country, performing right here in our valley.

Meanwhile, tickets are still available for America's favorite tribute to Journey by "DSB" on Saturday September 23rd at 7:00 pm. Tickets will still be available the day of the show.

Showtime for HHT performances is 7:00 pm. Tickets are $22 presale, $25 day of show, available online at www.PurplePass.com or at the theatre ticket office. Tickets are also available at the Downtown Deli, 113 N Harvard St and the Harvard Street Music Exchange, 134 S Harvard St.

On a lighter note, tickets are also available for the Rotary Comedy Night featuring KFI radio personality Justin Worsham on Friday September 29th at 8:00. "Parents Night Out" is a humorous look into the strange world of fatherhood. Whether you are a father or just had to put up with one, this show is smart, insightful and wickedly hilarious. Tickets are $20 general admission, $15 for veterans and members of Rotary. Proceeds from this show will fund local community projects through the Hemet Sunset Rotary Club.

For a full line-up of shows, visit the theatre website at www.HistoricHemetTheatre.com or stop by the ticket office Monday thru Friday 11am - 6pm or call (951) 658-5950. A weekly email blast of upcoming events is available by enrolling on the theatre's website, www.HistoricHemetTheatre.com.
