TRIBUTE TO THE DOOR NEXT UP AT HHT

The Summer/Fall Concert Series at the Historic Hemet Theatre is drawing to a close with one last concert on Saturday November 11th. "Strange Days" returns to Hemet with a tribute to The Doors that is unmatched.

Based in Los Angeles, "Strange Days" tours the world sharing the magic...the mystery....and the madness of The Doors. By combining vintage instruments with the latest technology, "Strange Days" offers both an authentic on-stage look and an unmistakable studio album sound.

Jason Tosta performs an amazing recreation of Jim Morrison, singing, shouting, jumping and throwing himself to the floor while performing songs such as "Back Door Man," "Light My Fire," "Hello, I Love You," and "Riders on the Storm." With each classic song, the audience will be transported back in time to the 1960s when in the span of just five years, The Doors changed the course of rock music forever.

Strange Days is vocalist Jason Tosta, guitarist Robert Carsten, keyboardist Michael Jacobson and drummer Derek Smith. Come see why audiences everywhere are saying, "The Lizard King Lives!"

Showtime for HHT concerts is 7:00 pm. Tickets are $22 presale, $25 day of show, available online at www.PurplePass.com or at the theatre ticket office. Tickets are also available at the Downtown Deli, 113 N Harvard St and the Harvard Street Music Exchange, 134 S Harvard St.

For a full line-up of shows, visit the theatre website at www.HistoricHemetTheatre.com or stop by the ticket office Monday thru Friday 11am - 6pm or call (951) 658-5950. A weekly email blast of upcoming events is available by enrolling on the theatre's website, www.HistoricHemetTheatre.com.
