HHT JUMPIN' AT STONES TRIBUTE

The Ultimate Stones were in town on Saturday May 12th for a Tribute to the Rolling Stones that had the place jumpin' with excitement.

The event was the first concert of the new season of Tribute Mania at the Historic Hemet Theatre. Tickets for the 8-concert season have been strong, with over 25% of tickets already sold.

On Saturday, fans filled the dance floor from the first notes of "Start Me Up" to the end of the encore, "Jumpin' Jack Flash." With every note, the band proved their reputation as one of the best tribute bands in the country. The vocals by Julz Harris, singing the part of Lisa-Mary, were stunning, earning thunderous applause from the crowd with every solo.

Lead singer, Jim Becker, commented on why HHT is one of their favorite venues. "Like most bands, we don't do this for the money, we just love to play. The audience in Hemet is so enthusiastic, it just makes this so much fun!"

Next up on the Tribute Mania schedule is a Tribute to Led Zeppelin featuring Led Zepagain on Saturday May 26th. Tickets for this show are moving fast and are likely to be gone before day of show. Other concerts in the season include tributes to The Who (June 9), The Doobie Brothers (June 23), Chicago (July 7), The Bee Gees (July 14), The Eagles (August 4), and Abba (August 18). Showtime for all Tribute Mania concerts is 7:00 pm, with doors open at 6:15 pm. Tickets are $22 presale / $25 day of show.

Also on the HHT calendar this month is a Grease Sing-a-long event on Thursday May 31st at 2:00 pm, hosted by The Hemet Woman's Club, and a full day of free patriotic movies on Memorial Day, Monday May 28th from noon to 7:00 pm. The calendar in June will include a Gospel Review on Friday June 29th, featuring Jerome Robinson, Lead Singer of the 2nd Generation Platters, and Leon Myer. The event will also feature the Tri-City Gospel Choir under the direction of DiDi Jackson and special guest Helena V.
