BEACH BOYS TRIBUTE RETURNS TO HHT

On Saturday September 14th, the Historic Hemet Theatre will welcome back to the stage one of its most requested tributes - Southern California's top tribute to The Beach Boys, Surf's Up.

In 1961, The Beach Boys released their debut single "Surfin," sparking the creation of an entire genre of music called "beach sound" and inspiring a decade of music around the California life style. The band remains one of the most critically acclaimed, commercially successful and influential bands of all time, selling over 100 million records.

Classic Beach Boys songs include "Surfin' USA," "Little Deuce Coupe," "Fun, Fun, Fun." " I Get Around," "Help Me Rhonda," "California Girls," "Barbara Ann," "Good Vibrations", "Sloop John B," and so many more.

Similar to the Beach Boys, Surf's Up is a family band. Brothers Donny & Danny Goldberg, their father Don Goldberg Sr. and cousin Denny Hardwick have been performing together for 25 years. Their sibling harmonies capture the authentic blend of the Beach Boys with amazing precision. Not just another tribute band, these veterans truly bring the magical "Sound of Summer" to the stage.

Surf's Up was one of the first tribute bands to perform at the reopened Historic Hemet Theatre. Since then, the group has made several return appearances, but have not performed at HHT since 2017. Tickets are selling quickly and may be gone before day of show. Grab your tickets this week and get ready for "Fun! Fun! Fun!"

This show is the second in Season Three of the "Tribute Mania" Concert Series. The series later this month with tributes to The Eagles (9/28), The Beatles (10/12), Buddy Holly & the Legends of Rock & Roll (10/26), Huey Lewis & the News (11/2), The Blues Brothers (11/23), and Styx (12/7).

The "Friday Nite Live" concert series also continues this month with tributes to Brooks & Dunn (9/20), Roy Orbison (10/4), Reba McEntire (11/8) and Keith Urban (12/13).
